NEW VICE PRESIDENT SALES TO KAPPAHL

Stefan Högvist has been appointed Vice President Sales and member of KappAhl Group Executive Management with access during spring 2013. Stefan, born in 1974, works since over a year as Sales Director at Hemtex. He has many years of experience in senior positions in the retail and service industry.

KappAhl adds further valuable skills by Stefan Högvist's solid sales experience.

– This is a strong recruitment and it is very positive to include Stefan to the team with a comprehensive approach to our sales and retail development. Our priority is on developing KappAhl as a leading fashion chain and highlight the customer meeting in the store. Because we operate in a market situation that requires us to be the best in meeting customers, Stephen's experience becomes an important contribution, says Johan Åberg, President and CEO.

As Vice President Sales, Stefan Högvist will lead and develop the sales organization.

– I am extremely pleased about the opportunity to work for KappAhl. I am passionate about working where the customer truly comes first. KappAhl is in an exciting challenge right now and there's a lot of potential. I look forward to contribute with my experience in sales and leadership, says Stefan Högvist, future Vice President Sales of KappAhl.
